Havana Public Library District Volunteer Policy

The Havana Public Library District recognizes and appreciates the hard work and unique talents the volunteers of the community offer to the Havana Public Library District throughout the year. The Havana Public Library District also recognizes the risk of injury which can be a part of every activity. For that reason, the board of trustees of the Havana Public Library District carries the necessary insurance coverage to provide insurance to volunteers who are injured while performing a task assigned by the library staff or board of trustees as part of a program of volunteerism. This insurance encompasses both liability and premise medical coverage.
